

The Impact of HIV among East Africans in the United States

A video teleconference broadcast sponsored by

African Americans Reach and Teach Health Ministry, the Northwest AIDS Education and Training Center at the University of Washington, Alaska Native Tribal Health Consortium and Iliuliuk Health Center

Tuesday, October 20, 2009 from 5:30 PM—8 PM

Presentation by: Meti Duressa, MSW

Learning Objectives

- Explore cultural differences among East African immigrants and refugees.
- Discuss the impact of HIV and stigma among East African immigrants and refugees.
- Identify barriers to care for East African immigrants and refugees.
- Identify strategies to improve access to health care.

Telecast Host Site

Iliuliuk Family Health Clinic
34 Lavelle Ct
Unalaska, AK 99685
Contact: Natalie Miller
(907) 581-1202

Registration Required

Click Here to Register Online

Or go to

<https://catalysttools.washington.edu/webq/survey/aarth/82854>

For more information or to register contact: Betty Morgan at (206) 850-2070, aarthministry@arth.org or Joe Cantil at (907) 729-3956, jdcantil@anthc.org

