

Alaska Psychiatric Institute Recovery Center & The Alaska Native Tribal Health Consortium present

Medical Co-Morbidities in Serious Mental Illness: Morbidity and Mortality

8:30-9:30 a.m., Tues. June 9th & 23rd

Speaker: Dr. Jenny Love

Love's talk is part of Frontline Behavioral Health, a videoconference series on the 2nd & 4th Tuesdays of each month for primary care providers including physicians, mid-level practitioners, behavioral health clinicians, CHA/Ps and BHAs and CHAs.

The series includes expert presentations the second Tuesday of the month and interactive case reviews the fourth Tuesday.

CMEs available.

- Call in toll free to 1-888-733-9423, or 375-9423 in Anchorage, then enter 3945#
- Beam in to video IP address 10.242.254.3, meeting room 3945

Jenny Love, MD, MPH is API's medical director. Dr. Love has a Master's in Public Health with a focus on Health Care and Prevention through the Public Health Leadership program, UNC School of Public Health. She completed a Family Medicine Residency training in Billings, Montana and trained in a Community Health Center setting with additional exposure to management of psychiatric disorders in the primary care setting. She has a strong interest in healthcare from a community perspective and enjoys providing health education to consumers and providers.

For more information, visit <http://hss.state.ak.us/dbh/API>

For VTC assistance, contact Tom Elmore, 729-3910, telmore@afhcan.org, five working days prior to the training.